

Camp Lemonade War

Fourth-grader Evan Treski is people-smart. He's good at talking with people, even grownups. His younger sister, Jessie, on the other hand, is math-smart, but not especially good with people. So when the siblings' lemonade stand war begins, there really is no telling who will win—or even if their fight will ever end. Brimming with savvy marketing tips for making money at any business, definitions of business terms, charts, diagrams, and even math problems, this fresh, funny, emotionally charged novel subtly explores how arguments can escalate beyond anyone's intent.

JUNE 3-28, 2019

Join Ms. Shannon and your friends for a fun and intensive four-week study of this book, which is required summer reading for incoming 4th grade students at PHPS. The course meets each day, Monday – Friday from 11:00 – 12:30, and there are no opportunities to make up missed classes.

The students will read and study the book together during the 90-minute session. Skills emphasis will include comprehension, vocabulary, and literary elements. There will also be several fun activities connected to the book.
